

Basic key terms of government and contemporary issues

Dept : Computer Science And Engineering

- AMENDMENT - An amendment is a change or addition to a constitution or a bill. It can add, remove, or change parts of the document before it becomes final.
- APPROPRIATION - money set aside by a legislative body for some government expenditure.
- BILL - A bill is a written idea for a new law or a change to an existing law that is presented to Congress.
- Public bill- A public bill is a suggestion for a new law that would affect everyone. It deals with important issues like schools or hospitals.
- Private bill- A private bill is a suggestion for a new law that helps just one person or a small group of people.

Budget: A budget is a document that the President sends to Parliament every year around July-June. It estimates how much money the government will make and spend in the next year and suggests where the money should go.

Calendar : A calendar is a schedule of activities for lawmakers . When a bill is ready to be discussed by the whole House, it is put on the calendar.

Caucus : A caucus is a meeting of members from the same political party in a legislative body. They get together to decide their party's position on upcoming issues.

Election : An election is the process where citizens vote to choose government officials.

Fiscal Year: A fiscal year is a 12-month period used for keeping financial records and making budgets.

Hearing: A hearing is a meeting where a congressional committee listens to people who support or oppose a proposed law. They share their opinions and information about the issue.

Law: A law is a set of rules and regulations that everyone must follow.

Lobby : A lobby is a group or person (called a lobbyist) who tries to influence lawmakers to pass or reject certain laws.

Majority: A majority means more than half. It is the group that has more than half of the votes.

Minority: Minority means having less than half of something, like votes. It's the group that controls only a small part of the total votes.

Motion: A motion is a suggestion for a procedure or action that is put forward in a legislative body.

Ratification: Ratification is the act of officially approving something, such as an appointment or a treaty.

Contemporary Issues in Public Administration

Protecting and Advancing Democracy

1. Ensure elections are fair and help more people vote.
2. Update government services to work better.
3. Find new ways to run government and involve people.
4. Protect our country's interests as the world changes.

Strengthening Social and Economic Development

5. Make sure everyone has a fair chance in society.
6. Help people find jobs that matter to them.

- 7. Build strong communities where people support each other.
- 8. Manage our country's money wisely for the long term.

Ensuring Environmental Sustainability

- 9. Take care of nature and deal with climate change.
- 10. Create safe and sustainable ways to use water.

Managing Technological Changes

- 11. Keep people's information safe and respect their privacy.
- 12. Prepare the government to use artificial intelligence (AI).

THANK YOU