

HUM 2101: Sociology and Disaster Management

Administrative functions and various tiers of government and international politics

Lecture 3

Md. Arif Chowdhury

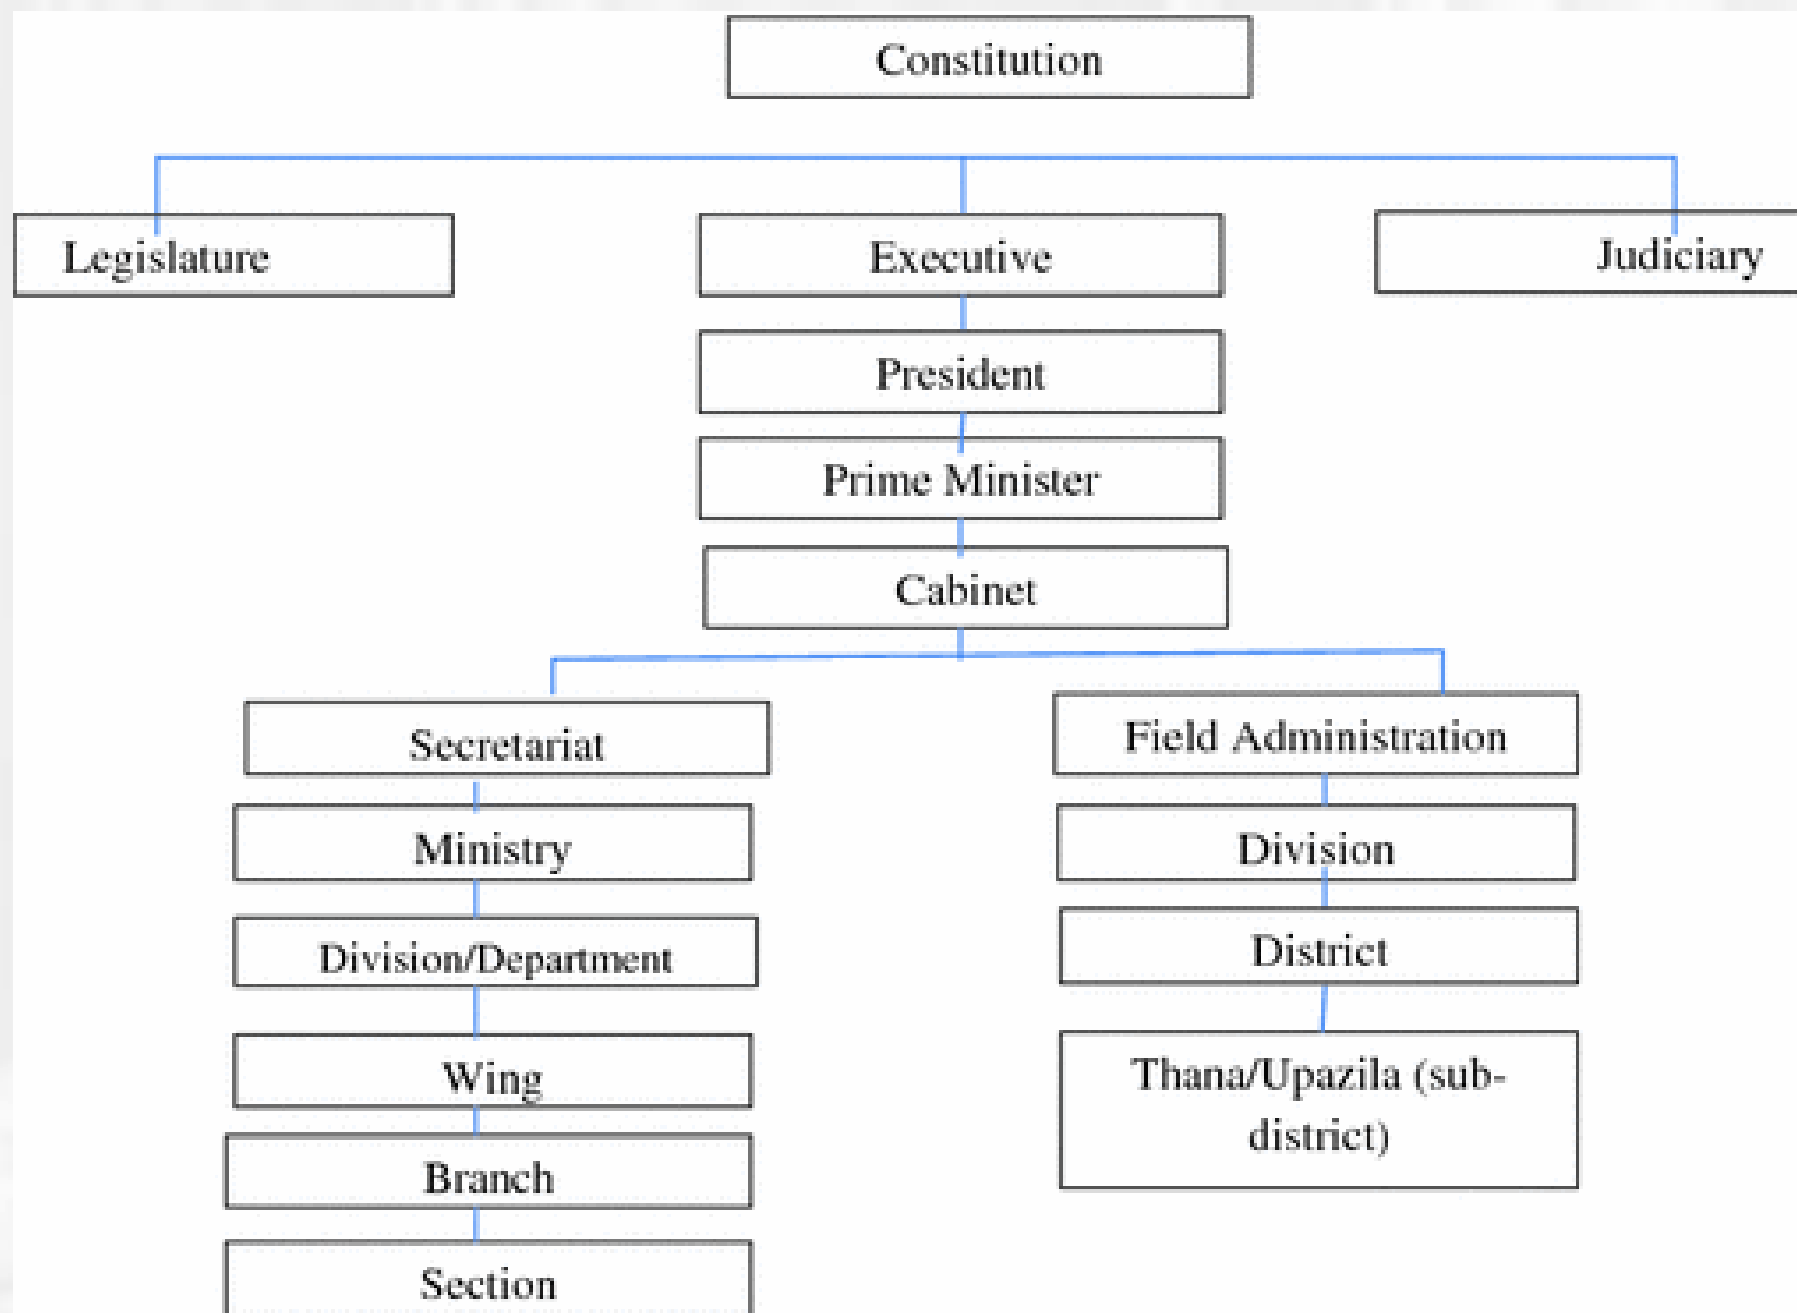

Lecturer

Dept. of Climate and Disaster Management
Jashore University of Science and Technology

Administrative structure of Bangladesh

- The government organization in Bangladesh can be conceptualized as a two-tier administrative system.
 - i. Central secretariat at the national level
 - ii. Field administration at the sub national level

Administrative structure in Bangladesh

Central secretariat at the national level

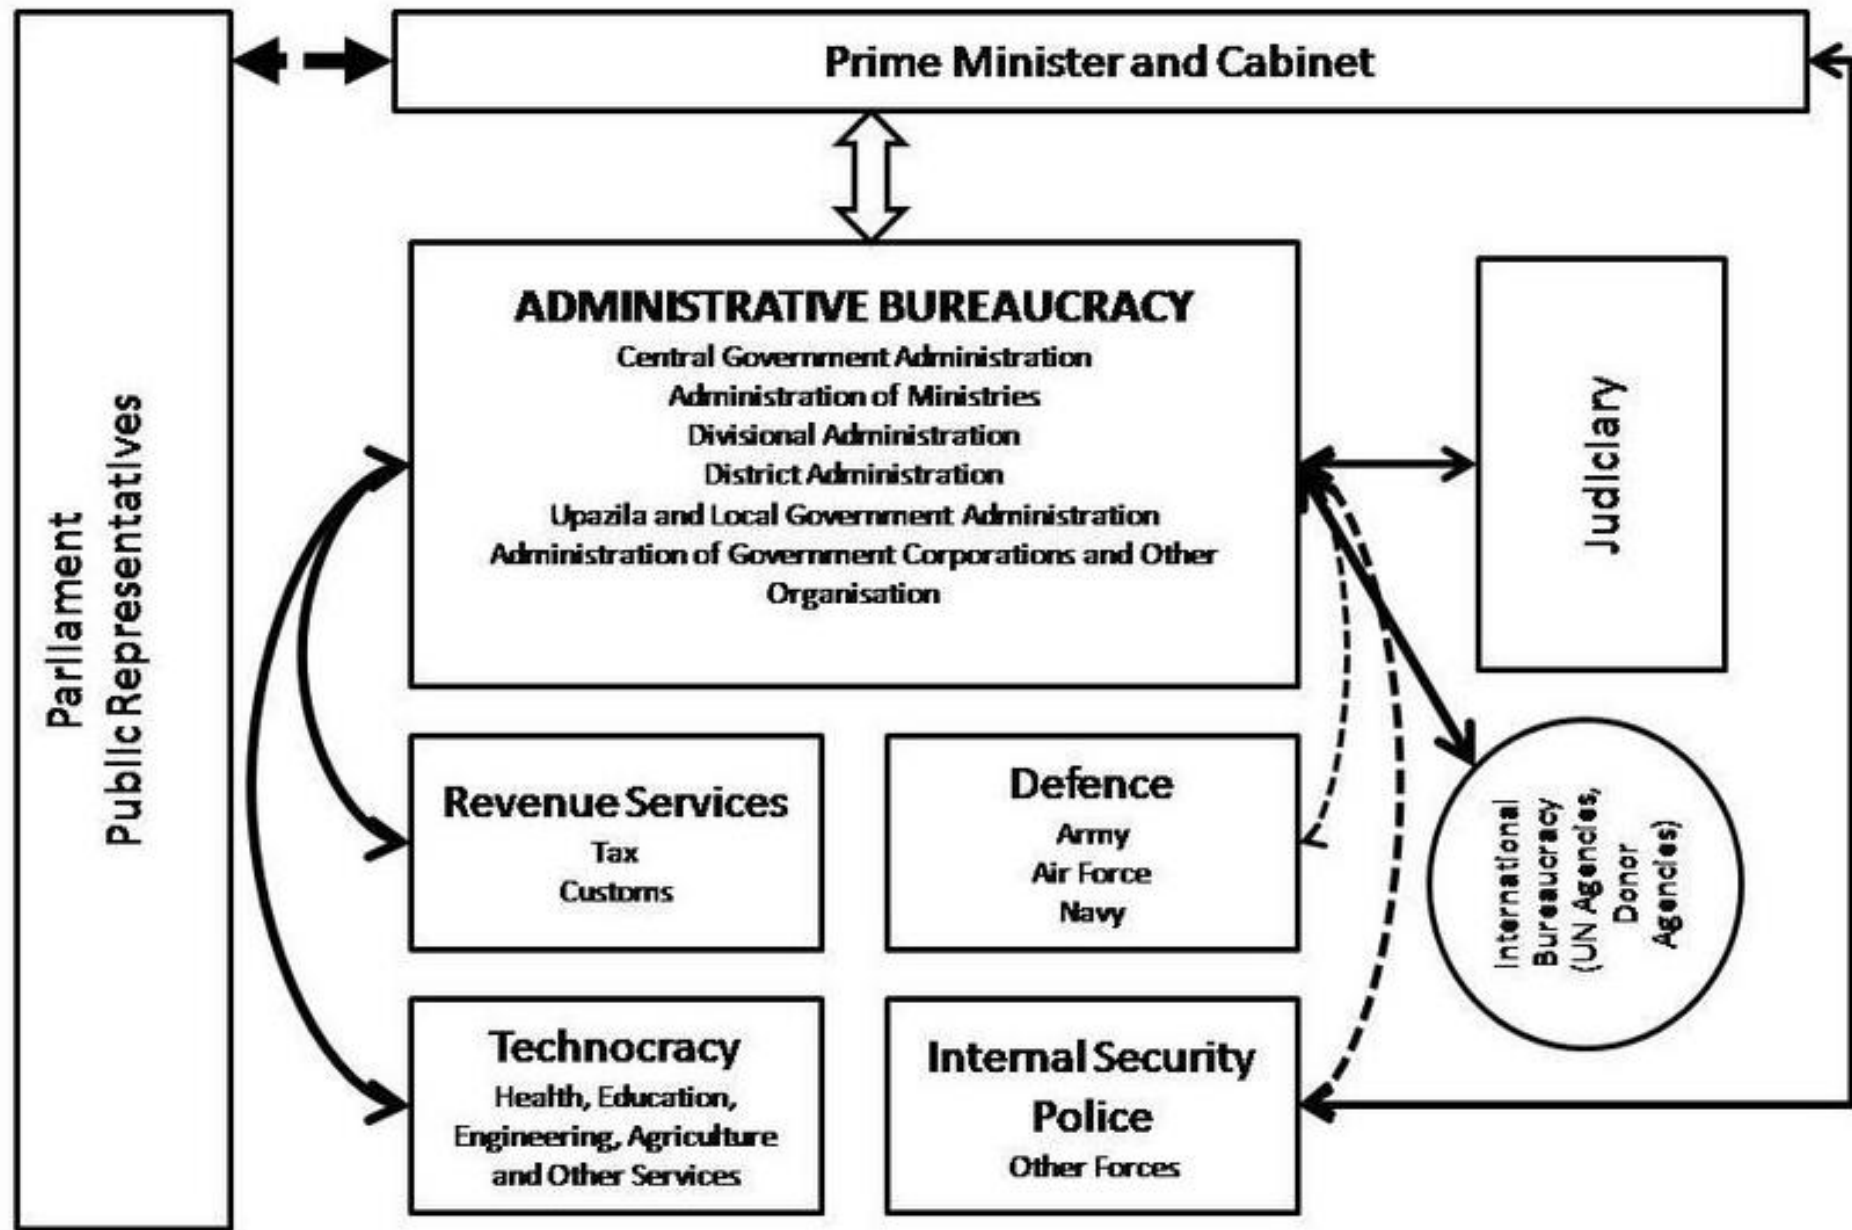

- The ministries and divisions altogether constituting the central secretariat at the national level is supposed to provide clearinghouse functions.
- Administrative structure in secretariat
 - ✓ Secretary
 - ✓ Additional secretary
 - ✓ Joint secretary
 - ✓ Deputy secretary
 - ✓ Senior scale assistant secretary
 - ✓ Assistant secretary

Field administration at the sub national level

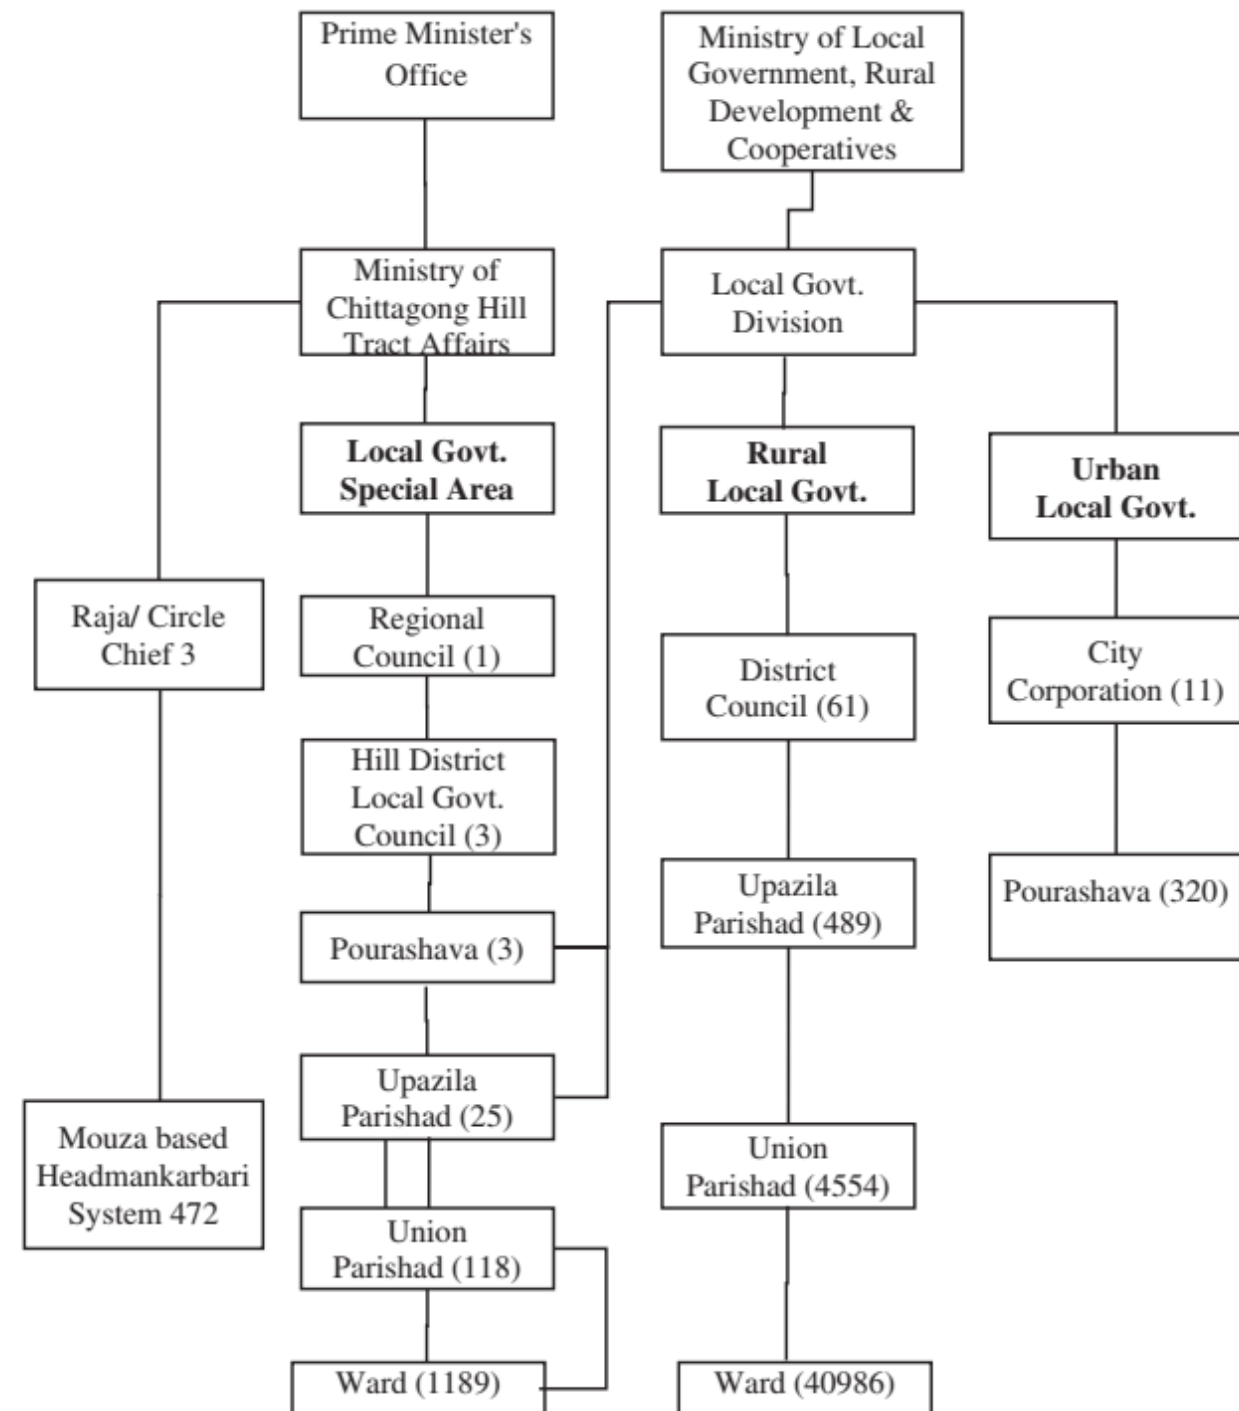

- General administrative, delivery of public services, and implementation of development program and so on, are carried out at sub-national levels-division, districts, thanas (upazilas)-representing the central level ministries and divisions as well as the line departments/ directorates attached to the ministries/ divisions.
 - ✓ Divisional Commissioner (DC)
 - ✓ Additional Divisional Commissioner (ADC)
 - ✓ Thana Nirbahi Officer (TNO)
 - ✓ Magistrate
 - ✓ Assistant Commissioner

The administrative set-up in Bangladesh for governance of the country

Existing structure of local government in Bangladesh

Foreign policy

- The foreign policy of a state can be considered as a complex and dynamic political course that it maintains in relation to other states to protect its own national interest.
- Generally, it is believed that foreign policy is a wheel through which the process of international politics operates.
- Conceptually, foreign policy is that part of the national policy of a state which relates to the external environment.

Determinates of Bangladesh Foreign Policy (1/2)

- Foreign policy of a country is influenced by several factors; these factors are classified into two broad categories: (i) internal, and (ii) external
- Internal factors
 - ✓ Size (the size of state territory as well as its population)
 - ❖ Geography (includes its fertility, climate, location in relation to other land masses and water ways)
 - ❖ Cultural and history
 - ❖ Economic development
 - ✓ Social structure (A society which is divided on the basis of wealth, religion, regional imbalances etc. can not pursue effective foreign policy)
 - ✓ Public mood
 - ✓ Technology and arms

Determinates of Bangladesh Foreign Policy (2/2)

- ✓ National capacity (depends on its military power, its technological advancement and economic development)
 - ✓ Political organization (quick foreign policy decisions in autocratic system as compared to democratic systems)
 - ✓ Political accountability
 - ✓ Leadership
 - ✓ Roles of press and media
-
- External factors
 - Power structure
 - International organization

Foreign policy decision-making process in Bangladesh

In Bangladesh, foreign policy decisions are made at the interactions of both formal and informal institutions.

✓ Formal institutions

- ❖ National Assembly/ House of the nation
- ❖ President
- ❖ Prime Minister
- ❖ Chief Martial Law Administrator
- ❖ Ministry of Foreign Affairs
- ❖ Ministry of Defense
- ❖ Ministry of Commerce, other ministries, civil bureaucrats, and armed forces

✓ Informal institutions

- ❖ Political parties
- ❖ Press and media