

HUM 2101: Sociology and Disaster Management

Cultural content and growth of capitalism and development of civilization

Lecture 6.2

Md. Arif Chowdhury

Lecturer

Dept. of Climate and Disaster Management
Jashore University of Science and Technology

Socialism

- ✓ A system that encourages cooperation rather than competition among citizens.
- ✓ Citizens communally own the means of production and distribution of goods and services, while a centralized government manages it.

Features of socialism

1. Promotion of worker rights and collective bargaining
2. Emphasis on social welfare and safety net programs
3. Public ownership of essential goods and services
4. Progressive taxation and redistributive policies
5. Government control of the means of production
6. Price controls and regulations
7. Centralized economic planning
8. Environmental protection

Consequences of socialism

- More equal society
- Reduction of poverty
- Regulates excesses of free market-monopoly, monopsony
- Universal health care improves living standards and labor productivity
- Promotes common good and social welfare rather than selfish aims
- More equal society increases social cohesions
- Can promote protection of environment